

Internet Explorer Window

Title Bar – Displays the title of the current web page

Menu Bar – Displays the main menus to access functions, settings and preferences of Internet Explorer

Standard Toolbar Buttons – Buttons to navigate the internet

Address Bar – Space to enter website addresses

Go Button – Click to go to the website address entered in the address bar

Links Button – Shortcuts to designated websites

Scroll Up Arrow – Moves up toward the top of the web page

Scroll Down Arrow – Moves down toward the bottom of the web page

Vertical Scroll Bar – Drag up or down to move through the web page

Connectivity Icon – Indicates the computer is connected to the Internet

Main Browsing Window – Area where web pages are displayed

Status Bar – Displays information related to the activity being carried out

Internet Explorer Toolbar Buttons

1. Back – Returns to the previously viewed page
2. Forward – Goes ahead one page
3. Stop – Cancels the current action, stops a page from downloading or a link from opening
4. Refresh – Reloads the current page to show the most up to date information
5. Home – Goes to the page designated as the home page (the first page that appears when the browser is opened)
6. Search – Opens a pane with a search feature to allow searching the web for a specific keyword(s) entered into the search box
7. Favorites – Opens the Favorites pane to show bookmarked sites which can be opened by clicking on the links in the pane. Favorites can be added, deleted, or rearranged from the Favorites list.
8. History – Opens the History pane which shows a list of previously visited websites which can be opened by clicking on the links in the pane
9. Mail – Displays a list of options related to email using Microsoft Outlook Express
10. Print – Prints the current page immediately without giving any options
11. Edit – Allows editing of the current page